Guidelines specified in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th edition) must be followed. A consolidated alphabetical list of all books, articles, essays and theses referred to (including any referred to in the tables, graphs and maps) in the text should be provided at the end of the article. References for tables and figures should accompany the table or figure.

If more than one publication by the same author is listed, the items should be given in chronological order. References should be embedded in text in the author-date method of citation. For example: (Konhert, 2007, p. 12), (Kannabiran et al., 2008, pp. 175–200). The detailed style of referencing is as follows:
